November 2024 Volume 296

Note from the Chair of the Congregation

As we near election day I've found myself reading Romans. Paul writes in Romans 1:14 I am obligated both to the Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish.

Here are some thoughts I have:

- *Elections are important-but can't we please find a middle ground??
- *Righteousness comes from God through Faith
- *Focus on having faith in God's plan
- *Keep faith-don't get wrapped up in all the other "stuff" going on
- *Running and hiding won't solve anything, whether we are "wise" or "foolish"
- *I'm not taking sides, just fed up with the whole thing
- *Encourage people to focus on God's plan, not all the other "stuff" that goes along with an election.
- *God's love is his gift to us-salvation, righteousness
- *Paul led the people, picked them up-I want to be more like Paul
- *All promises given to us by man will never compare to the gifts we already receive from God.

Romans 1:16-17 I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.

For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith that is from first to last, just as it is written: “the righteous will live by faith.”

Please pray for our country
